1. Introduction

Tudor Grange Academies Trust (the Trust) is required by law to adopt a policy on charging and remission arrangements for each academy's activities. The Trust wishes to provide for all pupils the best possible educational opportunities available within the funds allocated by the Education Funding Authority. The law states very clearly that education during normal academy hours is to be free of charge to parents/carers, and the Trust is committed to upholding these legal requirements. However, educationally valuable activities have been and will continue to be dependent on financial contributions in whole or in part from parents/carers. The Trust's concern is to keep financial contributions to a reasonable minimum, and to ensure as far as possible that all children are able to take part, irrespective of their circumstances. The law recognises that charges may be made to parents/carers in certain defined circumstances - provided that the academy has identified the activities for which charges will be made, and has explained the basis on which charges may be reduced or waived for certain pupils. The Trust agreed policy is below.

2. Admissions

There is no charge for admissions.

3. Academy meals

There is no charge for children who are entitled to free school meals or infant free school meals. Pupils who are not entitled to free school meals will be charged as per the displayed prices.

4. Public examinations

There is no charge for examinations that are part of the curriculum and on the academy's set examinations list, where children have been prepared for the examinations by the academy. However, if the pupil fails without good reason to meet an examination requirement, the academy may recover the fee incurred from that pupil's parents.

There is no charge for examinations that are not on the set list but which have been arranged by the academy.

There is a charge of the examination entry fee(s) if the registered pupil has not been prepared for the examination(s) at the academy (see optional extras under Section 6).

5. Activities that take place during academy hours (this does not include the break in the middle of the academy day)

There is no charge for activities during academy hours with the exception of music tuition (Section 9).

There is no charge for transport during academy hours to organised academy activities.

The academy may charge for:

- books and materials that the parent wishes the child to keep (the cost will be made clear to the parents before charge);

- optional extras (Section 6);
- music or vocal tuition (Section 9).

6. Activities that take place outside of academy hours (non-residential)

There is no charge for activities that take place outside of academy hours when they are:

- part of the set curriculum, including sports matches against other schools;
- part of the syllabus for a public examination that the pupil is being prepared for by the academy;
- part of the academy's basic curriculum for religious education.

Optional extras

The academy will charge for optional extras. Optional extras are:

- education provided outside of academy time that is not:
 - a) part of the national curriculum;
 - b) part of a syllabus for a prescribed public examination that the pupil is being prepared for at the academy; or
 - c) part of religious education.
- examination entry fee(s) if the registered pupil has not been prepared for the examination(s) at the academy;
- transport that is not taking the pupil to an academy or to other premises where the local authority or Local Governing Body (LGB) has arranged for the pupil to be provided with education;
- board and lodging for a pupil on a residential visit;
- extended day services offered to pupils (for example a breakfast club, after-school club, supervised homework sessions)

The cost of optional extras

The Principal will decide when it is necessary to charge for optional activities, and the levels of charge will be set annually by the Principal on the recommendation of the LGB. The charges, when determined, will be published on the academy's website and appended to this policy.

Any charge made in respect of individual pupils will not exceed the actual cost of providing the optional extra activity, divided equally by the number of pupils participating. In no circumstances will there be an element of subsidy required for any pupils wishing to participate in the activity whose parents are unwilling or unable to pay the full charge (Section 13).

When calculating the cost of optional extras an amount may be included in relation to:

- any materials, books, instruments or equipment provided in connection with the optional extra;
- the cost of buildings and accommodation;
- non-teaching staff;
- teaching staff engaged under contracts for services purely to provide an optional extra, including supply teachers engaged specifically to provide the optional extra;

- the cost, or a proportion of the costs, for teaching staff employed to provide tuition in playing a musical instrument, where the tuition is an optional extra.

Participation in any optional extra activity will be on the basis of parental choice and a willingness to pay the charges. The academy will need to have the agreement of parents before organising the provision of an optional extra where charges will be made.

7. Activities that take place partly during academy hours either on or off site

Where the majority of a non-residential activity takes place during academy hours the charging of the activity will be the same as is outlined in Section 5.

Travelling time is included in time spent on activity.

In cases where the majority of a non-residential activity takes place outside academy hours, the charge cannot include the cost of alternative provision for those pupils who do not wish to participate. No charge can be made for supply teachers to cover for those teachers who are absent from the academy accompanying pupils on a visit.

In this case the charging of the activity will be the same as is outlined in Section 6.

8. Residential activities

Our academy will not charge for:

- education provided on any visit that takes place during academy hours;
- education provided on any visit that takes place outside academy hours if it is part of the national curriculum, or part of a syllabus for a prescribed public examination that the pupil is being prepared for at the academy, or part of religious education;
- supply teachers to cover for those teachers who are absent from the academy accompanying pupils on a residential visit;
- travel costs where the residential activity is classed as being within academy hours
- residential activities that take place during academy hours.

Our academy will charge for:

Board and lodging

When any visit has been organised by the academy where there may be a cost for board and lodging, parents will be informed of this before the visit takes place. We will charge anything up to the full cost of board and lodging on residential visits, whether it is classified as taking place during academy hours or not. Parents who can prove they are in receipt of certain benefits may be exempt from paying this cost (see Section 12 for more guidance on remissions).

Travel

Travel charges may apply when the residential activity takes place outside academy hours. The amount charged will be calculated to cover the unit cost per pupil. These charges may not apply to those pupils entitled to remissions, but no other pupils will be charged extra to cover those costs.

Activities

The academy may charge for residential activities that fall outside of academy hours (see Section 6).

9. Music tuition within academy hours

The Trust follows government legislation that states that all education provided during academy hours must be free; however, music lessons are an exception to this rule.

Charges will be made if the teaching is not an essential part of either the national curriculum or a public examination syllabus being followed by the pupil(s), or the first access to the Key Stage 2 Instrumental and Vocal Tuition Programme.

The academy may charge for teaching requested by parents and delivered by specialist tutors given to either an individual pupil or groups of any appropriate size (provided that the size of the group is based on sound pedagogical principles) to play a musical instrument or to sing. The cost of these lessons may depend on the size and duration of the class as well as the type of instrument. Charges for these lessons may not exceed the cost of the provision including the cost of the staff who provide the tuition.

The academy will not charge if the music tuition is part of the national curriculum or public examination syllabus being followed by the pupil. This includes instruments, music books and exam fees.

The Trust is dedicated to ensuring equal opportunities for all pupils including access to specialised music tuition, therefore charges made for music tuition within academy hours will be remitted for pupils on free school meals.

There is no charge for vocal or instrumental tuition for looked-after children. This includes instruments, music books and exam fees.

10. Extended services

The Trust is dedicated to providing a well-rounded and extensive education for our pupils which includes a wide range of extra-curricular activities (extended services). Extended services enable our academy to provide:

- high-quality learning opportunities either side of the academy day;
- ways of intervening early when children are at risk of poor outcomes, e.g. by providing access to study support, parenting support or to more specialist services (such as health, social care or special educational needs services);
- ways of increasing pupil engagement;
- ways of improving outcomes and narrowing gaps in outcomes between different groups of pupils;
- Breakfast and homework / extended hours clubs which sometimes include providing meals.

The total charge will not exceed the cost of providing the activity and no parent will be asked to subsidise others.

11. Damage to property and breakages

Where academy property has been wilfully damaged by a pupil or parent the academy may charge those responsible for some or all of the cost of repair or replacement.

Where property belonging to a third party has been damaged by a pupil, and the academy has been charged, the academy may charge some or all of the cost to those responsible.

Whether or not these charges will be made will be decided by the Principal and dependent on the situation.

12. Remissions and concessions

The academy will give consideration to the remission of charges to parents or carers who receive the following support payments:

- Income Support;
- income-based Jobseeker's Allowance;
- Child Tax Credit (where the person is not receiving Working Tax Credit and have an annual gross income of no more than ¹£16,190);
- support under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999;
- the guaranteed element of Pension Credit;
- Working Tax Credit run-on – paid for 4 weeks after you stop qualifying for working Tax Credit;
- Universal Credit – if you apply on or after 1 April 2018 your household income must be less than ¹£7,400 a year (after tax and not including any benefits you get);
- income-related Employment and Support Allowance.

Children of families who receive these payments are also entitled to free academy meals. Parents who are eligible for the remission of charges will be dealt with confidentially.

The Principal and Chair of the LGB will authorise the remission of charges (please see the Trust's Financial Support policy for the process to be adopted).

The academy may choose to subsidise part or all of the payment of some charges for certain activities and pupils, and this will be determined by the LGB and Principal.

13. Voluntary contributions

The Trust may ask for voluntary contributions to the academy for general funds and/or to fund activities that will enrich our pupils' education.

¹ These values may vary but will be in line with the prevailing rates listed here.

In any case where an activity cannot be afforded without voluntary funding, this will be made clear to the parents by the academy. If the activity is cancelled all monies paid will be returned to parents.

There is no obligation for a parent or carer to make any contribution and the academy will in no way pressure parents to make a contribution.

14. Inability or unwillingness to pay

The Trust is committed to ensuring fair access and treatment of all pupils, and this means ensuring that no child is excluded from an activity because the parents or carers of that child are unwilling or unable to pay. If there is insufficient funding for an activity, or the academy cannot fund it from another source, then it will be cancelled.

The identity of the child or parents of the child who did not want to make the payment, or could not make the payment, will not be disclosed under any circumstances.
